

Research Paper Timeline

The following is the schedule we will be following for the research paper project. It is very important that you try not to miss any days of school! Take good care of yourself and stay healthy!!! Although every day will be a word day in class, this paper may not be able to be completed entirely in class. You may need to work on it at home!!! If you need extra help beyond class time, see me to set up an appointment. Do NOT procrastinate!!!!
